Activity Directions

Tuesday

Gathering Grain

- 01 Cut out 10-20 strips of paper in different colors. One color for each person playing.
- 02 Hide the colored strips throughout your house and/or yard.
- 03 Set a timer for 1 minute, and see who can gather the most "grain" in that time. They can only gather the color that is assigned to them.
- 04 Repeat if desired or work in teams to see who can gather the most!

Ruth was gathering grain from Boaz's field that had fallen on the ground. This is called "gleaning", and it was a way to provide for Israelite woman whose husbands had died. Boaz cared for Ruth and allowed her to gather as much grain as she could, and also asked his servants to intentionally drop grain for her to gather.

Thursday

My Perfect Match

- 01 Talk about as a family the things that Boaz did to help Ruth.
- 02 Discuss what Ruth did to show her love to Boaz.
- 03 Have each of your children write out 10-20 attributes that make up a good husband or wife. Let them work independently on this as much as possible.
- 04 Once their lists are done, have them share what characteristics they came up with.
- 05 Talk as a family what makes a good wife or husband. How did Boaz and Ruth fulfill the characteristics of a good wife or husband.

Saturday

The Price is Right

- 01 Have each of your children choose 5-10 of their favorite things from the grocery store and make you a list.
- 02 Go buy the items on their list and place them out on a counter or table.
- 03 Have your children decide how much they think the item costs, and write that down on a 3x5 card.
- 04 Have another family member go to each of the items and decide if the price written down is higher or lower than the price that is written.
- 05 Once everyone has priced out their items, uncover the correct price.
- 06 Add up the points of who came the closest and the most correct answers to determine the winner!

“I will go where you go,
I will live where you live...”
